NEEDLES AND THREAD

DECEMBER 2017

JoAnn's Jewells.....

I can't believe this is my last JoAnn's Jewels article. Well, with that being said, we still do not have a new president for 2018. We are still working on that and could use your help. Please contact me if you have any suggestions.

For those of you who ordered a wooden seam roller, I have them.

I want to thank everyone who took one of my president blocks. I have gotten several back. I can hardly wait to put them together, they are all so pretty. If you are still working on my block, that's ok, just return it and I will have my Micron pens at the next meeting. You can sign your block then.

I would just like to take a moment to say, I have had the best and most rewarding 2 ½ years serving as president of the Northland Quilters Guild. I have gotten to work and know so many of you. I am amazed at your warmth, kindness, knowledge and support, not to mention how darn talented you all are. Everyone is willing to share, assist or give advice when needed. I thank you for that and so much more. All I can say is, "I am blessed to call you all my friends".

Happy Sewing,
JoAnn Borchelt, President

HELP THE SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA QUILTERS

Quilters in Santa Rosa, CA have lost everything from the fires. The Santa Rosa Guild is asking for quilters to send a fat quarter to the guild to help replenish the stashes. Jane Bromberg has graciously offered to collect and send the fat quarters from our guild. If you would like to help the Santa Rosa Guild, please bring one or more fat quarter(s) to the December meeting. If you prefer to send them yourself, send them to Santa Rosa Quilt Guild, P.O. Box 9251, Santa Rosa, CA 95405.
