July 2024

Joann's Bits and Pieces

I hope all of you are checking out the quilts you want to put in our Sept quilt show. We usually have a wonderful variety and great workmanship to put on display. Although it seems we have lots of time, it's less than 3 months away. Don't forget Roberta's challenge quilts. I will see you all in July.

Joann Thomas

CHALLENGES

Thanks to all who have participated in the challenges this year. If you haven't participated yet this year, we have more fun challenges coming your way.

Please pay your participation fee of $1.00 prior to the start of the meeting.

JULY CHALLENGE—Even though our meeting is a week after the July 4th holiday, let's see what you made.

Item: Bunting Theme: July 4th
Size Requirement: At least 36" long

Fabric: Red, White and Blue - solids, prints, stripes, dots, or a mix of whatever you choose - as long as its red, white and blue!

AUGUST CHALLENGE

What's more refreshing on a hot summer day than a bowl of ice-cold sherbet? If you can picture this, you know what will be the color choices for August's pincushion challenge.

Item: Pincushion - these cuties are a great way to use up tiny scraps, and create something useful as well. Fill with stuffing for a soft effect, or with crushed walnut shells for weight and firmness.

Color(s) and Fabric(s): Incorporate one or more sherbet colors in lemon, lime, orange and/or raspberry, using prints, dots and/or checks in the maker's choice of these yummy colors!

Size and shape and technique: Determined by maker

If you're stumped about what design to use, just search for "quilted pincushions," and you'll find a wealth of information just a click away.

Northland Guild Challenge Team: Vicki Stanley

Hospitality

Thank you to everyone who brought a snack to share last month.

For July, if you have a FAVORITE summer time treat that you would like to share, as always you might find something new to try.

If you have any wine corks you no longer need, please bring them along (we are working on decorations already for the Christmas/Holiday dinner)

Silent Auction

Items are slowly trickling in for the quilt show's silent auction. Please bring completed items to August or September's meeting. Remember to label them with the maker's name, since many people want to know who made the item they purchased.

Be creative with the types of items you make. Holiday and sports-themed items are usually popular. Consider donating a handmade bag, pillow or other 3-D item, as these sold great last year.

Proceeds of the silent auction will benefit A Turning Point.

Vicki Stanley

NNQS Minutes June 27 2024

Karen Allen called the meeting to order.

Treasurer's Report: Vicki Nagayama processed her first check request.

Jean Newton moved, Debbie Moore seconded and the committee members accepted the minutes for the previous month as published in the guilds' respective newsletters.

Old Business: Revision of By-Laws –Committee Report

After discussion of the proposed revisions designed to allow flexibility for the proposed changes in the schedule of Northland Needlers Quilt Shows and to distinguish between by-laws and procedure manual content, Mary Ann Robker moved, Debbie Gamm seconded, and the Quilt Show Committee approved the revisions to be sent to the respective guilds for formal vote. It was recommended that the proposed revisions be sent to guild members by email blast so a vote can be taken at the July or August guild meetings. Jean Newton complimented the By-Laws Committee on its work.

Committee Reports:

Admissions: Gwen Weakley asked for a decision on admission ticket pricing. The Quilt Show Committee agreed to keep the same pricing as the previous show: $5 day/$7 for two days. Gwen has also printed the Viewer's Choice ballots as revised at the previous meeting.

Bazaar: Jean Newton reported that the Bazaar would have work days every Wednesday until the show. Some donated items were passed on to the Silent Auction.

Door Prizes: No report.

Publicity: No report (Sandy Cerra has Covid19).

Quilt Registration: Vicki Nagayama opened registration but Day Guild did not get the email blast. It will also be mentioned in the upcoming newsletter but the QR code will only work in the email, as the newsletter is a PDF and does not contain a live link to the QR code. Vicki will follow up to ask Doris to send the registration information by email.

Quilt Turn-In/Release: Mary Ann Robker asked for the release procedure. Karen and Debbie will make sure the Turn-In and Release coordinators have information about the procedures, which are in DropBox and in the printed manual.

Ribbons: Jean Newton confirmed the number of ribbons needed; she said most are finished.

Sign-Up Genius: Roberta Waterfield reported on behalf of Joann Borcheldt that Joann needs the email list from both guilds. The newsletter editors will have this list. Teri Henderson asked if there would also be an opportunity to sign up on a physical printed chart and Roberta said yes, and we can follow up with Joann at 816-645-5798 or ruddiejo@yahoo.com

Signs: Karen Allen asked anyone who needs signs for the quilt show to contact Phyllis Carlyle. Vicki Stanley will follow up with Turning Point to see if they have materials that can be displayed at the Silent Auction or if she needs to have a sign made.

Silent Auction: Donations are coming in slowly. A number of blocks made decades ago by Nitetime Needlers were donated to the Silent Auction for sale. Marci Hainkel related the history of these blocks to Vicki Stanley.

Special Exhibit: Roberta Waterfield reported there are 31 entrants preparing their challenge quilts.

Sponsors: Pam Peugh was absent but reported through Karen Allen that the Missouri Sewing Machine Company had purchased a gold sponsorship. Steve Conway from State Farm Insurance is a sponsor, and others are starting to come in.

Vendors: Marci Hainkel reported that Little Red Hen, Fabric Chic, and Lemon Thyme have paid for booths, and she may have a couple of additional vendors lined up.

Website Coordinator: Brandi Webb was absent, but Karen Allen and Vicki Nagayama reported on the problems with the quilt show website.

New Business:

Website updates: the site is currently inaccessible but Vicki Nagayama and Brandi Webb will try to sort that out.

Facebook Page updates: Facebook page should also be updated.

Gwen Weakley advised that the Heartland Quilt Network should list our show so Kathy Taylor offered to do that. It was also advised that we add our quilt show to the Missouri Shop Hop site and to the FaceBook group page for quilt shows.

Truck Rental: Sandy Cerra sent a copy of last year's contract to Karen Allen indicating the source, size and cost of the truck used in the previous show.

Patricia Rogers asked if the Committee could meet from 6 – 7 pm rather than 6:30 – 7:30 pm in future, to avoid competing with the sound of choir practice that begins at 7 pm. The Committee unanimously agreed.

The next meeting will be July 25 (Thursday) at 6:00 p.m.

The next Quilt Show meeting is scheduled for July 25th at 6pm. Please note the new start time.

NORTHLAND NEEDLER'S QUILT SHOW

The Quilt Show is organized and registered with the state of Missouri as part of the Nitetime Needlers Quilt Guild. The Quilt Show is a jointly managed and produced venture of the Northland Quilters Guild and the Nitetime Needlers Quilt Guild. The 2nd Vice President of each guild will serve as the Co-Chairs of the Quilt Show.

Section 1. Authority

The Quilt Show is a legal entity housed under the Nitetime Needlers Quilt Guild tax number with financial and administrative duties equally shared by the Nitetime Needlers Quilt Guild and the Northland Quilters Guild.

The Quilt Show will be held annually every other year. Any major changes in date or venue must be approved by both Quilt Guild boards prior to signing any contracts.

1. Quilt Show Leadership group is composed of the Quilt Show Co-Chairs, Assistant Co-Chairs, Secretary and the Co-Treasurers.
2. Co-Chairs are members of the Leadership group. The Co-Chairs will:
 - Set the date and place for the next year's quilt show
 - Lead preparation of the Quilt Show budget
 - Appoint chairpersons of sub-committees as required
 - Schedule and lead the Quilt Show meetings. This includes setting the date, time and place of the meetings and sending notifications to Quilt Show committee members.
 - Delegate authority as they see appropriate to sub-committee chairs for budget consumption, procedures, setup and completion of other duties of that sub-committee
 - Assistant Co-Chairs are members of the Leadership group and will:
 - Be prepared to fill in if a Co-Chair is unable to serve.
3. Quilt Show Committee is comprised of the Quilt Show Leadership group and the chairpersons of each Guild's Quilt Show sub-committees. Other guild members are encouraged to participate in the Quilt Show committee meetings. A status report will be made monthly to each guild's board and membership to inform of the plans being made and progress. The Quilt Show Committee's meeting minutes will be provided to each guild's newsletter monthly by the Secretary.
4. Only Guild members may enter or sponsor items in the Quilt Show.
- ~~5. Given that both guilds' fiscal year is from January 1 to December 31, appointments to the Quilt Show Leadership and Chairperson positions will also be for the same period. This does not preclude appointment and beginning work by the next Leadership group for the following year.~~

Section 2. Financial

1. Contracts – Once the budget is approved by both guild boards, both Co-Chairs should sign contracts for the Quilt Show. Contracts signed by the prior ~~year~~ Quilt Show Co-Chairs will be honored for the next ~~year's~~ Quilt Show.
2. Quilt Show Co-Treasurers are members of the Leadership group. The Quilt Show will have ~~two~~ Co-Treasurers, one elected by from each guild. ~~to serve a two-year term~~. At least one of the treasurers should be at each quilt show meeting with the checkbook to process deposits and process reimbursements as needed. They should also coordinate attendance at the Quilt Show so a treasurer is available during the show.
 - These Co-Treasurers will have no responsibility for guild finances.
3. Checking Account - Northland Needlers Quilt Show will have a bank account. All revenue, vendor fees, advertising fees, admission fees and bazaar receipts, etc. will be deposited into the Quilt Show checking account.

Account Signatories (~~6~~) (4) are:

- Quilt Show Co-Chairs

● ~~Quilt Show Assistant Co-Chairs~~

- Quilt Show Co-Treasurers

Checks - Checks must be signed by two signatories, one from each guild. Reimbursements will be requested via a “Request for Check” form.

All checks issued to any one of the signatories must be signed by two other signatories.

1. Financial Report - A printed quarterly financial report of the Quilt Show will be provided to both guilds by the Co-Treasurers via the guild newsletters. No one except the reporting Co-Treasurer may make changes to the financial reports to be sent to the guild newsletters. The exact same financial report will be sent to each guild’s newsletter.

After Show Financial Report – Before the ~~October~~ Quilt Show wrap-up meeting, Co-Treasurers will work jointly to prepare the after-show financial report and forward to the Quilt Show Co-Chairs for discussion at the wrap up meeting. Co-Treasurers will provide the report to both guilds for inclusion in the guilds’ newsletters for review after the audit has been completed.

Audit - The Quilt Show account will be audited annually ~~within three months after the conclusion of the Northland Needlers Quilt show-~~ by the end of the fiscal year. The audit will be completed by two members-at-large and a Co-Treasurer. The Presidents of the Northland Quilters Guild and the Nitetime Needlers Quilt Guild will each appoint one of the members-at-large. The Co-Treasurer will be a resource only.

2. Budget - A budget will be prepared by the incoming Quilt Show ~~Co-Chairs, Assistant Co-Chairs, Co-Treasurers and any other individuals such as immediate past Quilt Show Leadership members that the Co-Chairs would like to include once the after show financial report is completed.~~ Leadership Group. The recommended budget will be approved by both Guild boards. ~~The completed budget should be approved by each Guild board no later than the March guild meetings.~~

Unbudgeted/Over-Budget Requests - Any unbudgeted amount and amounts greater than $100 over the budget needs to be approved by a quorum of the Quilt Show Committee. A quorum is 40% of the Quilt Show Committee or a minimum of 5 members. If there isn’t a quorum the expense should be presented to the guild boards for approval.

3. Funds for Quilt Show Operations

Funding by the Guilds – The account was initiated by equal donations of $900 from each guild. If additional funds are needed for show expenditures, extra donations exceeding $200 must be approved by both guilds’ membership.

These funds will stand independent, to be used for future Quilt Show expenses.

Retention of Funds from Quilt Show Proceeds - Per the final financial report, funds exceeding $10,000 will be divided equally between the two guilds. At such time, the excess may be donated to the show account. The donation must be approved by both guilds. If both guilds do not approve, the excess will be divided equally and remitted to the two guilds.

Section 3. Recordkeeping

1. Quilt Show Secretary is a member of the Leadership group and has the following responsibilities:

- Meeting Minutes – The Secretary will be present and record the minutes for each Quilt Show monthly meeting. A copy of the meeting minutes will be sent to each guild’s newsletter for inclusion in the newsletter immediately following the meeting.
- File Sharing Software– The Secretary or designated person will:
 - i. Set up the file sharing software for the new year’s Quilt Show and invite all individuals needing access.
 - ii. Ensure copies of all Quilt Show related documents including, but not limited to bylaws, meeting minutes, contracts, vendor information, program originals, subcommittee procedures and financial reports are filed in the file sharing software for that year’s Quilt Show.
