NEEDLES AND THREAD

JUNE 2018

Donna's Dewdrops!

Hello Summer! I don't know what happened to Spring, but I was very tired of 'Sprinter' and ready for these hot sunny days! I have been working on gathering items for the Quilt Show Boutique and figuring out what I can get done for the Miniature auction. I'm also trying to decide what quilt I want to make for my recently redone bedroom--I'm going with a beach theme and am looking at all those beautiful teals and blues! I think Hubby is happy to say goodbye to the purple! I missed you all last month--desperate call from an over-whelmed daughter planning a graduation party for her hubby and getting their apartment all spruced up-sadly she is as good a procrastinator as her mom! See you soon and keep on stitching!

Donna Brattin, President

Thanks you all for the blues for the scrap quilt. Keep them coming! (Strips not smaller than 3 1/2 inches wide are perfect.)

Jan Kramme, Scrap Quilt Chair

2018 Kaleidoscope of Color

Our 2018 Quilt show is rapidly approaching. On Pages 10 and 11 in the newsletter, you will find the Northland Needlers Quilt Show Registration Form. This form is due at our July 12th meeting.

Joy Behrens, Quilt Show Co-Chair

Antique/Heirloom Quilt Special Exhibit

Roberta Waterfield will be giving a "D" sleeve mini class just before the June 14th guild meeting. If you are planning to show your antique/heirloom quilt in the 2018 Quilt Show Special Exhibit, please be sure to arrive at the guild meeting before our 10:00 starting time to learn how to make the "D" sleeve for your quilt.

NORTHLAND QUILTER'S GUILD

Minutes of May 10, 2018 General Meeting

The meeting was called to order by Robin Musgrave who was filling in for Donna Brattin, President. She welcomed members and asked if there were any visitors. There were 5 visitors today.

Membership: Nancy Bellis – There were 82 members present.

Guild Meeting Minutes/Treasurer's Report: The Guild Meeting Minutes from the previous meeting and the Treasurer's report were both approved as written in the newsletter.

Old Business: - The members voted and approved the by-law changes which had been previously presented.

New Business: The guild is in need of someone to maintain the guild's Facebook page. Anyone interested should contact JoAnn Borchelt who has been doing it or Donna Brattin. Celeste Wegner mentioned that we need to begin advertising our September Quilt Show on Facebook.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Treasurer: Michele Midtbo – Nothing to report.

Programs: Robin Musgrave – Robin introduced today's program, "Quilting Modern: Honoring Tradition" by Jackie Gering. June's program will be presented by Ann Say who will show her Hawaiian quilts. Ann is also involved with the Della Lamb program that teaches sewing to refugees. Donations of sewing supplies such as scissors, thread, fabric, sewing machines, etc. will be accepted at the meeting.

Publicity: Mary Rohrbeck – Nothing to report.

Historian: Jo Forsythe – Nothing to report.

Hospitality: Carol Barnes/Daphne McClure/Denise Dodd – Thanks was given to everyone who brought snacks.

Library: Trudy Coogan- The library now has the Spring Vol 5 Issue 2 Missouri Star Quilt Company book.

Memory Makers: Dolores Swenson - There is one quilt to baste this month.

Miniatures/Silent Auction: – Rita Fenn, Judy Mulvey, Helen Tidics – Some recent donations received were shown and members were encouraged to try to submit their donations in June or July so they could be displayed at the August meeting when members will vote for their favorite in each category.

Newsletter: Mona Meyers – Nothing to report.

Opportunity Quilt: JoAnn Borchelt – The quilt is pieced and at the quilters. JoAnn will bring the completed quilt to the June meeting. Tickets will also begin to be sold at the next meeting for chances to win the quilt. JoAnn thanked everyone who helped with the quilt.

Quilt Show: Joy Behrens ●Joy researched printing t-shirts for the quilt show with our 2018 quilt show logo. She determined the best way to do this would be for anyone interested to purchase their own t-shirt (any color) and she will sell them an iron-on logo for at-cost only. Please let her know if you plan to purchase a logo so she can have the correct number printed. ●Members were reminded to sign up to help at the Quilt Show. ●Letters and request forms for advertising in the quilt show program have been sent. These are available for members if they want one. ●There is still space for three more vendors. Let Joy know if you know of anyone.

The advertising bookmarks will be printed when all vendors have committed. ●Volunteers are needed at this month's Sewing Bee to press and hem the new quilt show drapes. Bring your sewing machine and black thread.

Quilted Blessings: Teddie Broughton – Nothing to report.

Quilt Boutique: Celeste Wegner/Mary Ann Robker - Volunteers are needed to help prepare donations for the boutique. Boutique workshops are scheduled for every Wednesday 9 AM to 1 PM, Thursday 5 PM to 8 PM and Saturday 10 AM to 2 PM at Celeste's home. If you are able to attend, please call Celeste to confirm (816-213-3352) or Mary Ann Robker (816-490-1353).

Regional Quilt Festival: Becky Newman/Roberta Waterfield - Becky reported that 33 teachers have committed to present at the show. Criteria for the Showcase Quilt Challenge will be in next month's newsletter.

2019 Retreat: The dates for the 2019 Retreat will be February 21 beginning at noon and checkout at noon on February 29 at the Heartland Conference Center in Platte County. The cost is $160. Reservations and deposits will begin at the June meeting. We are limited to 30 attendees.

Scrap Quilt: Jan Kramme – Jan showed sample blocks for this year's quilt. Block kits will be available at next month's meeting for members to participate. This quilt is a fundraiser for our guild. Tickets are sold to members only and the drawing is held at our December meeting. David Hurd has volunteered to quilt it.

Sunshine & Shadows: Shirley Justus – Greta McGregor fell and broke a bone in her back. Mary Jane Beatty, a past president, passed away. A motion was made by JoAnn Borchelt, accepted and voted upon to approve a $25 memorial donation to a charity of choice for past presidents.

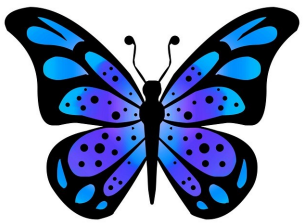
Sewing Bee & Challenge Committee: Roberta Waterfield – Nothing new on the Challenge projects.

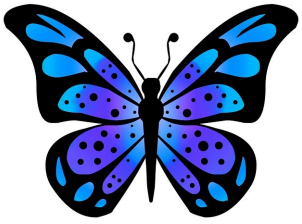
Announcements: Roberta Waterfield reported on the special exhibit for our quilt show this year. It will be heirloom or antique quilts. Details will be in the next newsletter and she has instructions for making deep quilt sleeves if anyone needs them.

Sew and Share: Twelve members showed their completed quilts.

The meeting was adjourned.
Respectfully Submitted,

Rita Fenn, Secretary





HOSPITALITY

Once again we had a great variety of food. Thank you to everyone who contributed. If you have a new snack recipe you'd like to try, we would love to be your testers. Hope to see everyone at the meeting!

Carol Barnes

Memory Makers

2018 UPCOMING PROGRAMS:

January snows kept us from having Ann Say's talk about Hawaiian quilts. She will join us in a warmer, tropical time in June. Ann and her husband spent many years living in Hawaii and have many Hawaiian quilts. She will talk about the tradition of Hawaiian quilts and bring those that she can collect from family and friends. Since moving back to the Kansas City area, she has been involved with a group of volunteers teaching refugees how to sew. Each 9 week session teaches a small group the basics of sewing (many have never held a pair of scissors!). This is a reminder to anyone who can donate sewing supplies to the program…fabric (preferably cotton), thread, notions (things found in a basic sewing kit, zippers, etc).

July: Trisch Price will be speaking about Tree of Life Quilts. Her lecture begins with the exploration of many interpretations of Tree of Life quilts from historical to traditional, to contemporary, and then to art. She will talk about designing quilts in a series. Many examples of more modern interpretations of tree of life quilts are shown along with how to take a design and use it as a basis to move in a different direction.

KCRQF 2019 Update

Planning is coming right alone. We currently have 33 teachers committed with 15 being local. Ricky Tims will be performing a concert and teaching three master classes! We are very pleased to have secured him for our 2019 festival. We voted for the proceeds of the miniature silent auction along with the preview night proceeds to be divided evenly between two local charities.

SILENT AUCTION NEWS:

DONATIONS ARE NEEDED for the Quilt Show Silent Auction.

We need items for the following categories:

Miniature Quilts – no side to exceed 24 inches

Wall Hangings – no side larger than 40 inches

Table Toppers/Runners

Baby Quilts – maximum size 45" x 50"

We request that panel/cheater cloth only be used if embellished.

Items with seasonal themes sell best—Fall, Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas.

At our August meeting, guild members will vote for their favorite in each category and ribbons will be awarded for each category. For judging, please be sure your name is on the back of your donation when submitted.

(It is also nice if there is a quilt label on the back with the year and your name or that says "2018 Northland Needlers Quilt Show.") Profits from the auction will be donated to a charity chosen by the night guild this year.

Your donations will be accepted at each quilt meeting by Helen Tidics or Rita Fenn or Judy Mulvey.

I'd like to welcome Dianna Davis, our Nitetime Needlers Quilt Show Boutique co-chair, joining co-chairs, Celeste Wegner & Mary Ann Robker. Yayy!! This year's Boutique is looking to be bigger and better and all hands are needed.

Please keep your donations coming. We will continue to accept donations through the 1st week of September at the guild meeting just before the quilt show. We want to have a "packed" Boutique in September with lots of choices for bargains! If you have too much at home (books, magazines, fabric, etc.) that makes it difficult to bring to the guild meeting or sew bee, please contact me or Mary Ann Robker to arrange a pickup. I can be reached at: celestewegner@gmail.com or call me at 816-213-3352 and Mary Ann at maryrobker@yahoo.com or call her at 816-490-1353.

We have begun workshops for preparing & pricing the donated items. They will be held weekly as needed right up to the week of the quilt show in September. Here is the information that was provided at last month's guild meeting. Please consider volunteering at one or more of the workshop days. Remember, you will get a preview of what we will be selling and it's very easy work—no cutting or ironing. Come when you can and leave when you want.

Registration Requirements and Information

Quilt Show Entry Rules:

1. All quilts entered in the Northland Needlers Quilt Show (NNQS) must be registered no later than July 12, 2018. A Registration Form is required for each quilt entry. Additional Registration Forms can be downloaded at www.nnqs.webs.com. You may also photocopy additional forms (include this page and the Release Agreement below).
2. Limit of four entries per guild member. Those listed as "other stitchers on this quilt" may also have their own four entries.
3. A guild member will be allowed to enter all four entries in any one category, with the exception of the Large and Small Bed Quilts categories, for which they will be limited to two entries. A waiting list for the Large and Small Bed Quilt categories will be accepted in case quilt entries are not turned in and there is room for additional quilts.
4. All quilts in Categories 1 – 6 must be quilted by hand, machine, or both.
5. Miniature quilts in Category 7 must not exceed 24" in width and length. Miniature quilts can be any style that is appropriately reduced in scale.
6. Art Quilt / Mixed Media - an art form that uses both modern and traditional quilting techniques to create art objects. Practitioners of quilt art create it based on their experiences, imagery, and ideas rather than traditional patterns. An art quilt generally has more in common with the fine arts than it does with traditional quilting. It experiments with textile manipulation, color, texture, and/or a diversity of mixed media. This art is generally either wall hung or mounted as sculpture, though exceptions exist.
7.  Sponsored quilts will count as one of the guild member's four entries. Sponsored quilts will not be judged. Only guild member's quilts will be judged.
8. Serendipity – a non-judging category. Antique quilts, quilted wearables, sponsored quilts, purses/totes and/or framed quilts.
9.  If a Quilt Registration Form is not marked whether the guild member wants their quilt entry judged, the quilt will automatically be indicated as a non-judged quilt entry.
10. Any quilt entered in the NNQS in 2015, 2016, or 2017 is not eligible for entry in the 2018 Quilt Show.
11. Quilts must be completed and turned into the Quilt Show Committee no later than the September 6, 2018 guild meetings. The Committee will accept quilts one hour before the guild meetings, during and immediately after the meetings.
12. A label identifying the maker of the quilt entry must be stitched or securely attached to the back lower edge of each quilt. The Quilt Show Committee is also requesting that a piece of muslin be placed over the label to make it easier for the judges to view the entire back of the quilt.
13. If the quilt entered has a definite top and bottom, please mark it appropriately for hanging purposes.
14. Quilts will be returned to the entrant no later than 5:30 p.m. on September 15, 2018 at the Salvation Army Community Center. Entrants must present their quilt receipt to take possession of their quilt after the NNQS.

Release of Liability Agreement:

I, _____, understand the Northland Needlers Quilt Show (NNQS) will take (Please Print Your Name)
every precaution to safeguard my quilt(s) during this event, but that the NNQS will not be held liable for damage or loss while in their possession. I agree to allow photography of my quilt. I agree to permit the image of my quilt(s) to be used by the NNQS in articles, ads, promotions, catalogs, books, websites, and multi-media production for any future NNQS. I understand that my quilt(s) may not be credited in such instances and that there will be no compensation paid to me for any such use.

I understand due to the type of show, my quilt(s) may be subjected to dust and sunshine during the Quilt Show. Submission of any quilt(s) to the NNQS constitutes permission by me to display my quilt(s) and I fully understand these are the conditions of the show.

In the very unlikely event that my quilt(s) is/are lost or damaged, NNQS cannot be held responsible. Accordingly, insurance for any loss or damage is my responsibility.

I release my quilt(s) to the Northland Needlers Quilt Show (NNQS) having read and fully understanding the show criteria and conditions. I agree to hold the NNQS harmless.
